

MEET THE ARTIST

HC- HEIDI CLAYTON

Growing up as a Wisconsin farm kid the appreciation and veneration of food was ingrained at a young age, and becoming a potter was a natural transition for me. I fell in love with pottery in High School and continued my education at UW Oshkosh, graduating with a degree in Ceramics. Through my studies I solidified my desire to honor the act of sharing meals by creating honest, sturdy, and beautiful pieces made to be shared.

