

MEET THE ARTIST

KAT - KAREN THIEL

On and off for over fifty years, Karen Thiel has explored the endless possibilities of clay. Her work celebrates the tactile joy of shaping, treating, and firing forms that continually evolve in new directions. Each visit to the studio is an invitation to experiment with fresh techniques and push creative boundaries. For Karen, ceramics is both a lifelong passion and a playful companion—always ready to inspire and surprise.

