

MEET THE ARTIST

TIG - LEANN TIGGES

As Leann approached retirement, she returned to pottery many years after her first foray into clay. She did not expect to engage in handbuilding, but has found it to be both functional and fun. She finds it takes longer to produce pieces than on the wheel, but she likes the variations in form that are possible. She enjoys using carving and sculptural techniques to make her pieces distinctive.

