  - Monday-Sunday tabs are listed on the top of the sign up page.
  - When registering for classes on the same day, you only need to enter your first name, last name and email once.
  - Once you switch tabs to a new day you will have to re-enter your information to register for those classes.

    - In the comment section list the class name you are canceling.

- Class registration closes one day prior to the date your class is scheduled. (i.e Monday, 8:30AM Pure Strength registration closes Saturday at 11:59 PM). This allows us to print class rosters for the following day.
- Registration to in-person classes is first-come, first-served, while spots are available.
- Maximum enrollment for each class is dependent on what equipment will be utilized for the class, size of studio, and to provide a positive environment for participants and instructors. You can view the class maxes listed on the attached schedule.
